

Cyber Liability Choice Select

Are you covered if you are sued for a data breach?

What if your client's data is exposed to a major data breach?

Protect yourself against the costs of data theft with Cyber Liability Choice Select Coverage.

Cyber Liability coverage is a must if you store or transmit patient data. Even if a third party company handles your patient data, you still need Cyber Liability coverage.

Cyber Liability insurance covers many of the costs associated with a major data breach. A data breach or security incident occurs when confidential data such as patient records, or personal financial data is copied, transmitted, viewed, stolen, or used by an individual unauthorized to handle such information.

Your Cyber Liability Policy Covers:

- Legal Defense Cost
- State and Federal Fines and Penalties
- Damages
- Computer Security Breach Expert Audit
- Client/Patient Notification Costs
- ID Theft Protection Subscriptions for Victims

Don't risk facing a lawsuit if your clients' data is compromised! Get the right Cyber Liability Protection!

What they are saying about Cyber Liability Choice Select

“Since I work with several health plans and have to transmit information to them online, I want to make sure I am covered in case of any data breach. The NASW RRG Cyber protection is exactly what I was looking for; it’s affordable and covers the basic areas for which I need protection in my private practice.” – Mary, NY

“Having cyber protection is crucial to my practice because I interact with clients via web chat and telephone regularly, and I have sensitive information stored on my laptop. It’s good to know that if I ever lose a device, the RRG Cyber Liability insurance will cover the loss of my device, plus legal fees associated with potential lawsuits.” – Hannah, CA

“I was concerned about patient information being lost or stolen when our organization was converting paper records into digital records, but knowing that I’m protected by the NASW-Endorsed Cyber policy, I feel secure that I’m covered in case a record is lost.” – Elijah, FL
